

Great Southern Sandalwood Field Day

Friday 11th September 2009

This day is open to anyone with an interest in Sandalwood. This is your chance to look at managing plantations to maximize returns. We will be looking at plantations within the Shires of Woodanalling and West Arthur with the expert guidance of Dr Geoff Woodall.

We will be out in the field all day so come prepared for any weather and bring your own water bottle. Day will run from 9:30am - 4pm

There will be a bbq lunch.

May run a bus from Northam if there is sufficient demand

The Great Southern Development Commission and the Centre for Excellence in NRM (UWA) are acknowledged in their support of this field day

$30 non-members, Associate members $10. Grower members free.

All growers from the Great Southern Free entry

There will be an opportunity to join the ASN on the day.
